Dear

System Stabilisation Fund: ESG Gaming

I hope you do not mind me writing again, but I am reaching out to follow up on my letter of 03 October. We agreed we would have a Teams call in an email exchange on 02 and 06 October, but I have not heard anything.

In my letter dated 03 October and in preparation for the Teams call, I worked with our partners, accountants and board to share some additional evidence of how ESG Gaming's funding has been disrupted and provide additional information and evidence to your kind Outcome letter we received on 26 September.

Additionally, in our letter dated 03 October, we asked if there might be an appetite to (i) reconsider our proposal based on the additional evidence provided on 03 October or (ii) ask if a grant of £158,802 can be considered, given our current position and your desire to offer assistance to organisations affected. If the latter is an option, we will look to reapply to the System Stabilisation Fund for a grant of £132,472 at the next round, which we believe opens in a few weeks. I hope you do not mind me writing again, but could I trouble you for an update?

Best wishes
